M. Fahmi Rizki Syaban, MD, PhD (Cand.)

https://mokhamadfahmi.github.io/

Research Interests: cytoskeleton, protein structure, cellular dynamic, bioinformatics

EDUCATION

The University of Miyazaki — PhD in medicine (current) Miyazaki, Japan

- Research Topic: Regulation of FHOD1 in Actin Cytoskeleton Dynamics
- Supervised by Ryu Takeya
- Fully funded by MEXT Scholarship by Japanese government

Universitas Brawijaya (2015-2021) Malang Indonesia

Medical Doctor | GPA, 3.64/4.00 |

- Supervised by Professor Yuyun Yueniwati Sp.Rad and Dr. Elly Mayangsari M. Biomed
- Awarded PPA Scholarship (Academic Achievement Enhancement) at The Brawijaya University (2018)
- Outstanding Students of the Faculty of Medicine, Brawijaya University (2nd Place Appreciation Award)
- Thesis: "Molecular Docking Analysis of Beta-Glucan as a Therapy for Ischemic Stroke Targeting the Brain-Derived Neurotrophic Factor (BDNF) Protein"

RESEARCH & PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

University of Brawijaya Malang, Indonesia

Research Assistant (part-time) Sep 2021 - Sep 2022

- Supervised with Dr. Singgih Wahono on research focused on autoimmune disease

GRANT WRITING: I helped write the following grants each awarded over 17,000 USD

BIMA Kemenristekdikti (Fundamental Research): A prestigious national-level grant awarded by the Indonesian Ministry of Research, Technology, and Higher Education to support foundational scientific discoveries.

LPPM Universitas Brawijaya: A university-level competitive grant supporting multidisciplinary research and innovation.

DPPM FKUB: A faculty-level research grant from the Faculty of Medicine, Universitas Brawijaya, aimed at advancing medical and clinical sciences.

SELECTED TALKS

Competition Mission LSIM : Conducted intensive training on scientific paper writing, literature review, and strategies for medical research competitions.

Veni Vidi Vici FKUB : Delivered a scientific talk on integrating clinical medicine studies with active medical research and academic excellence.

Downloading LSIM : Led a foundational workshop on basic research methodologies, scientific thinking, and knowledge transfer for early-career researchers.

OTHER EXPERIENCES

Student Scientific Research Institute of Brawijaya University Malang, Indonesia
Vice Head of Research and Development Division Jan 2018 – Jul 2019
- Organized peer-to-peer clinical tutorials and academic workshops to enhance medical knowledge and competitive skills among members.
- Facilitated scientific research initiatives, including the preparation of literature reviews and posters for national and international medical conferences.

Asian Medical Student's Association Malang, Indonesia
Member of Research and Development Divison Jun 2016 – Nov 2017
- Managed the selection and preparation of academic delegations for inter-university medical competitions.
- Mentored members in drafting medical posters and original research papers for medical student conferences (AMSC/EACMFS).

TEACHING ASSISTANTSHIPS

The University of Miyazaki
Graduate Teaching Assistant (Department of Pharmacology) 2022-2026
- Instructed medical and graduate students in fundamental laboratory techniques, including precision pipetting and laboratory safety protocols.
- Guided students through in vivo experimental procedures, specifically animal handling and the dissection of mice and frogs for cardiac tissue isolation.
- Taught essential molecular biology techniques, including protein measurement assays and genotyping protocols.

HONORS & AWARDS

- [International] Gold Prize- International Invention and Innovative Competition Series 2 2018
- [International] Silver Prize- Seoul International Invention 2017
- [International] Second winner - Pre-Conference Competition 30th East Asian Medical Students Conference 2017
- [National] Best oral- Diponegoro Medical and Health Scientific Competition 2017
- [National] Third winner - Literature Review Airlangga Medical Scientific Week (AMSW) 2017
- [National] Best oral- Scientific Poster Interfaculty of Medicine Scientific

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

- Invited Reviewer: Scientific Report, European Journal of Medical Research
- Professional Memberships: Molecular Biology Society of Japan, The Japanese Biochemical Society.
